

Shipmanagement

FRS Shipmanagement provides services to the maritime industry - from recruitment to crew management, from crew qualification to audit preparations, from maritime consultancy to the registration of vessels under the Cyprus flag.

For our motor ships "SyltExpress" and "ROMO Express" operating on between Rømø/DK and the German North Sea island Sylt, we are currently looking for a

Chief Engineer (m/f/d)

Responsibilities

- Supervision of Engine Department
- Planning and supervision of maintenance work in the Engine Department
- Planning and supervision of maintenance work for technical equipment in all departments
- Safeguarding of safety of passengers, crew, ship and cargo
- Personnel management, Engine Department
- Sea watch
- Ordering of bunkers and lubricants, also Engine Department consumables and spare parts (Asbestos not allowed)
- Advises ship's command in all technical matters.
- Administration and maintenance of Engine Department documents and technical papers/manuals
- Cost control
- Training and instruction of engine crew

Qualifications

- Valid STCW Certificates.
- COC over 3.000 kW
- Problem solving skills to respond quickly and effectively to operational issues
- The ability to provide "hands-on" support to the vessel's team
- Good written and spoken English skills.
- Experience in AMOS Planned Maintenance System or similar beneficial

We offer

- A varied and responsible field of activity
- Freedom and design options within the dynamically developing FRS group
- A good working atmosphere in which teamwork is a top priority

Please send your full application (cover letter, CV, certificates/references) with your salary expectations and possible entry date to: careers@frs.de

 FRS Shipmanagement Ltd. · 256, Makarios Avenue · C4, Eftapaton Court · 3105 Limassol, Cyprus
E-Mail: careers@frs.eu